Eastern Cities — Traffle is almost Entirely Suspended.

New York, March 12.—The hardest snow storm of the year by far is raging in New York City. It began early this morning and at 8 o'clock was a foot or over on the ground. A high wind caused one of them to shut the door quickly. Almost immediately the building was lifted from its foundation and borne forward a distance of 12 feet by a strong wind or cyclone. The people who left uptown by the elevated roads were unable to get further than Eighth street by the road. Many of the more venturesome descended to the street by trying to dictate terms to the Democratic party.

Tue learful experience that New York is having is probably attended by greater evils than the mere interruption to business. In such a city the suffering among the poor must be terrible. Already much inconvenience to business men is reported, but what of those who are huddled about fireless grates in the poor districts?

Without going minutely into Mr. Randall's tariff bill, we find in the explanation of his bill as furnished by himself, that he has recognized a principle perversely disregarded by Mr. Mills and a majority of his party. Mr. Randall makes a distinct declaration that the tariff duties if placed below the line of even competition "necessarily increases of even competition for the same of even competition and the same of even competition of even competition "necessarily increase of ice and snow. It requires no high order of states manship to frame a tariff bill on a higher level of protection than the existing law so that it will cut down customs revenue 10 per cent, 20 per cent or 50 per cent. It is easy to go as far in this direction as the framer of the bill may desire.

Accounts re-ceived by members of the court circle ceived by members of the court circle concerning the meeting between Emperor Frederick and King Humbert at San Pier D'Arona Friday, represents King Humbert as being stricken by the ghastly aspect of the Emperor. After the departure of the Imperial train King Humbert covered his face with his handkerchief and said several times: "He is ill: ab. very ill." The steel superstructure is being made at Youngstown and is almost completed. The stone for enlarging the abutments will probably be brought from Lan-

As soon as one span of the new bridge is finished the old one will be torn away and the new be brought into use immediately. The new bridge will be for a double track and much stronger than the old one. When it was built it was not contemplated in the minds of men that the heavy engines and cars now used riage last night is regarded as proof that the reports that he had suffered a re-lapse in strength are groundless. It is stated that the Emperor Frederick's physicians were opposed to his coming to his father's death bed.

Too Old for the Ring.

LONDON, March 12.—During breakfast at Creil yesterday it is reported that Sullivan expressed himself as being too old livan expressed himself as being too old to enter the ring and said he would con-fine himself to sparring exhibitions and glove contests. The Sporting Life says: "We never saw a man light fairer than Sullivan did; even when he was inten-tionally spiked he only asked Mitchell to be more caretul. He has, we must admit, fallen from his high estate, but his defeat made a man of him." The work on the double track extension is still being carried on with a large force of men in the vicinity of Hanlin's and Dinsmore, and it is not thought that there will be any stoppage of this work, as it is being done by the company under the immediate supervision of its officers and employes and not by contract.

The mounted police claim to be prepared to put down any revolt, but at the same time admit that there will be trouble unless immediate relief is given. The half-breeds at Bouttouche are in constant communication with Gabriel Dumont, who is now in New York, and in recent letters he is understood to have advised them to secure food by pillage rather than submit to slow starvation. His people had half a crop of barley this year, but they were obliged to burn it and ceat it. The only thing his people had not tried to eat as yet, is earth or mud.
